

ISC 25th Anniversary Commemorative Series 5: April 2020

Interagency Security Committee (ISC) Stakeholders,

Hope everyone is staying safe in this challenging time.

As we are navigating through this uncharted territory of the COVID-19 pandemic, this month marks the 25th Anniversary of the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Building in Oklahoma City, OK. At 9:02 AM on April 19, 1995, the worst act of homegrown terrorism in our Nation's history left physical and emotional pain to many people.

Compassion and resilience of our great Nation got us through the recovery and has continued to this day. In order to commemorate the Anniversary while complying with the current CDC and local guidelines, the Oklahoma National Memorial and Museum is organizing a virtual remembrance ceremony aired on most Oklahoma television stations and streamed on the Museum website at 9 AM (CDT) on April 19, 2020. We invite you to join many others across the country remembering the 168 souls whose names are etched on the 168 empty chairs at the Memorial, honoring the survivors and expressing gratitude for those first responders whose lives were changed forever. You may also follow along 168 Days with us in remembrance of them at <https://memorialmuseum.com/remember/day/162/>.

Thank you for your continued partnership to defend today and secure tomorrow.

Very Respectfully,
Daryle
